Australia's premier Edible Forest (EF) at Yarra Valley Estate contains over 350 edible and medicinal plants. Tours run all year and offer a sample tasting of EF produce. A wide range of EF produce, and plants are available for purchase. Peregrine Cafe and Restaurant can prepare morning and afternoon tea or a spectacular lunch alongside a tour. For something really special, take a twilight tour, followed by dinner, with local wines, and accommodation with breakfast, all featuring an EF twist.

For the past eight years, Yarra Valley Estate's Edible Forest has been developed from an open grassy slope to a dynamic and productive food forest.

According to the Digger's Club CEO, it "is the best example of working food forest". An Edible Forest mimics a natural forest structure and develops microclimates that allow plants to grow well outside of their normal climate zones.

Come and experience the spectacular range of food and medicinal plants from all over the world. Learn about their uses and health benefits. Join a cooking class and learn how to use seasonal produce. Select from the wide range of fruits, jams, chutneys, pickled produce, dried produce, cordials, balms, room scents and selected Edible Forest seedlings that are available for purchase. Complete your visit at Peregrine Cafe and Restaurant where Edible Forest and kitchen garden produce, feature on the menu. It is a great paddock to plate experience using the freshest local produce and some unique signature products.

Innocent Bystander is born from an audacious spirit: the love child of a brewer-turned-winemaker with a natural curiosity and disregard for convention.

Nestled in the Yarra Valley, we've got a simple mantra: make wines we love to drink and share, without the fuss and pretense. After all, seriousness is for suits and you don't see much of that where we come from. Instead, our winemakers show the duality of Innocent Bystander: one alchemist and one tinkering craftsman, each guilty in the crime.

Innocent Bystander's home in Healesville (we call it IBHQ) is an urban cellar door, restaurant and bar all wrapped in one. We think our wines are best enjoyed with good company and great food, so we crafted our menu with sharing in mind. Created using fresh, seasonal and local Yarra Valley ingredients and inspired by classic dishes we love, our food matches our wines – delicious!

With a number of versatile and unique spaces, and customisable group dining options, IBHQ is the perfect spot to host your get-together.
